

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society
AGM, book launch & public lecture

Tuesday, 30 November 2010

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments

7.00pm - AGM & launch of an exciting new book about the life and times of renowned local archaeologist, Dennis Jackson, pioneer of modern archaeology in Northamptonshire

Followed by lecture-

ROMAN VILLAS & MOSAICS IN NORTHAMPTONSHIRE & REGION

by

Dr David S Neal

at

THE HUMFREY ROOMS, 10 CASTILIAN TERRACE
NORTHAMPTON NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

David Neal is a leading figure in the archaeology of Roman Britain. He has excavated widely, including Stanwick Roman villa in Northamptonshire, and is a regular and characteristically enthusiastic guest with Time Team. He is perhaps most renowned for his monumental research and co-authorship with Stephen Cosh of the corpus of Romano-British mosaics. A highlight of these volumes, now approaching completion, is David's immensely accurate and detailed painted illustrations. Examples from Northamptonshire include the Bellerophon mosaic from Croughton in the south of the county.

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society
AGM and public lecture

Tuesday, 8 November 2011

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments: 7.00pm - AGM

Followed by lecture –

RECENT WORK ON THE ROMAN SMALL TOWN OF IRCHESTER

by

Ian Meadows

of Northamptonshire Archaeology

at

THE HUMFREY ROOMS, 10 CASTILIAN TERRACE

NORTHAMPTON NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Ian Meadows presents the results of recent geophysical survey and excavation both within and around the walled Roman town

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society
AGM and public lecture

(joint meeting with The Historical Association)

Thursday, 8 November 2012

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments: 7.00pm – NAS AGM

(copies of the new journal: Northamptonshire Archaeology, 37, 2012 will be available for collection by members and purchase by visitors) followed by:

WHY MEDIEVAL PEASANTS ARE IMPORTANT

by

Christopher Dyer

Leverhulme Research Fellow

Emeritus Professor of Regional and Local History

University of Leicester

at

THE HUMFREY ROOMS of the
NORTHAMPTONSHIRE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY
10 CASTILIAN TERRACE
NORTHAMPTON NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society
AGM and public lecture

Thursday, 14 November 2013

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments:

7.00pm - AGM

Followed at 7.30 by a public lecture –

Sarah Tarlow

University of Leicester

THE CRIMINAL CORPSE:
DISPOSING OF THE REMAINS OF EXECUTED
CRIMINALS IN THE 18TH CENTURY

at

THE HUMFREY ROOMS, 10 CASTILIAN TERRACE
NORTHAMPTON NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Joint meeting with the Northampton Branch of the Historical Association

A woodcut from the Newgate Calendar, which shows the hand of a newly hanged man being applied to a young woman in an effort to cure a disease of the neck

Between 1752 and 1832 the bodies of executed murderers were legally denied burial in consecrated ground. Instead they were donated for anatomical dissection or 'hung in chains' (displayed in a gibbet). A new major research programme funded by the Wellcome Trust is bringing Leicester academics in the School of Archaeology and Ancient History, and the School of Historical Studies together with colleagues from the University of Hertfordshire and Oxford Brookes University to examine the fate of the corpses of executed criminals.

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society

AGM and public lecture

Thursday, 6 November 2014

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments: NAS AGM - 7.00pm

Followed at 7.20 by a public lecture -

John Williams

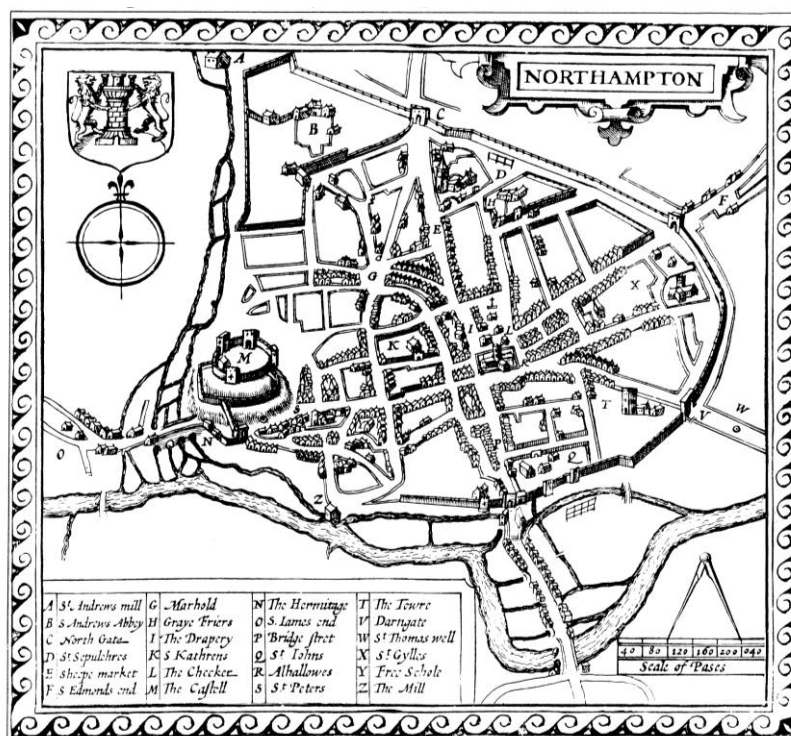

Reflections on Medieval Northampton

at

The Humfrey Rooms, Northamptonshire Natural History Society,
10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Joint meeting with the Northampton Branch of the Historical Association

John Williams was head of the Archaeological Unit of the Northampton Development Corporation in the 1970s to mid-1980s. He led excavations at St Peter's Street and the 'Palaces' site, which demonstrated that the origins of the town lay in the middle Saxon period. The results of his recent documentary research, 'Town and Crown: The Governance of Later Thirteenth Century Northampton', will shortly be published by the Northamptonshire Record Society.

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society AGM and public lecture

Thursday, 26 November 2015

*Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments: NAS AGM - 7.00pm
Followed at 7.20 by a public lecture -*

Stephen Young

continuity and change in the local landscape

at

The Humfrey Rooms,
Northamptonshire Natural History Society,
10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Stephen Young will address the meaning and significance of the archaeological record derived from CLASP fieldwork associated with the watershed of the River Nene. The focus will be on the period between the late 3rd and early 7th centuries AD and will explore these findings within the historical perspective for the locality and wider area. Reference will also be made to site and assemblage profiling and he will ruminate on future archaeological approaches.

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society
AGM and public lecture

Thursday, 10 November 2016

Doors open 6.30 for light refreshments: NAS AGM - 7.00pm
Followed at 7.20 by a public lecture -

Paul Blinkhorn

People and Pots in Medieval Northamptonshire

at

The Humfrey Rooms,
Northamptonshire Natural History Society,
10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY AGM

Tuesday, 14 November 2017

Public Lecture

The Rothwell Charnel Chapel Project

Multidisciplinary Explorations of a unique Medieval Charnel Chapel and its contents

Elizabeth Craig-Atkins
Senior Lecturer in Human Osteology
University of Sheffield

Tea and coffee from 6.30, NAS AGM from 7.00pm

Lecture from c.7.20pm

at the The Humfrey Rooms, NNHS,
10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society

AGM and public lecture

Tuesday, 13 November 2018

Doors open 6.30pm for light refreshments

NAS AGM - 7.00pm

Followed at 7.20pm by a public lecture

Paul Stamper

Legacies of the First World War

at

The Humfrey Rooms, Northamptonshire Natural History Society,

10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

Joint meeting with the

Northampton Branch of the Historical Association

Seaplane hanger relocated to Wimbledon in 1918

Copies of a new Historic England book co-authored by Paul, Legacies of the First World War: Building Towards Total War, 1914-1918, will be available for sale at the meeting. The book covers five years of fieldwork identifying surviving physical remains of the camps, airfields, war factories, coastal defences and the like constructed over 1914-18.

The lecture will place Northamptonshire in its wider context.

Northamptonshire Archaeological Society

AGM and public lecture

Tuesday, 12 November 2019

*Doors open 6.30pm for light refreshments
(Copies of the new journal, volume 40, 2019 will be available for collection)*

NAS AGM - 7.00pm

Followed at 7.20pm by a public lecture

Chris Chinnock

Borough Hill Hillfort Community Project

at

The Humfrey Rooms, Northamptonshire Natural History Society,
10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton NN1 1LD

All welcome - free entry

New NASNEWS available online at the NAS website:
www.northants-archaeology.org.uk